

I am a Voom customer and have been since October 2003, I purchased my equipment for 749.00, expecting several years of use. The service offers a variety and difference in programing to the other services. In addition to Voom, I also subscribe to Direct TV and find both to fill a need. Please rule against the sale of the equipment to Echostar. Thankyou for your time.